

Italian award for NID dean

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Ahmedabad: Fondazione Europea Guido Venosta, Italy will confer the "Il Ponte 2008" award on National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad (NID) and its director Dr. Darli Koshiy.

Darli Koshiy

The Il Ponte award was set up by Fondazione Europea Guido Venosta, Italy in the year 2001 in the memory of Guido Venosta a pioneer in bridging the gap between profit and no profit. The award symbolizes the spirit of sustainability and among the important recipients of the award is the Bangladeshi Nobel Prize winner for Peace in 2005, Muhammad Yunus, who founded the Grameen Bank and promoted microcredit in the country at the grassroots level.

The award will be presented to Koshiy and NID at a function on October 1 at the historical headquarters of Pirelli, Milan, Italy.